

jörg HEROLD - der Datenschlüssel

(jörg HEROLD - the data-key)

jörg HEROLD - der Datenschlüssel

(jörg HEROLD - the data-key)

01.04.1893 Standardized time
The German peacemaker

...from M., the centre of province, beats the measure for punctuality. Contrary to all confusions linked with time the german soul's heart of virtue beats here...

...DCF77 sends honestly the signal for German punctuality. Years after inauguration of the standardized time in Germany a mast affects the atomic beat of life...

01.04.1933 Boycott of Jews
Ministerial directive

...Mr. Nathan owns a big shop. He deals with woolen and everything else connected with that. Although one may admire only few outlays the windows are glazed generously and always cleaned perfectly. His normally satisfied customers – today only a few indecisive ones - stop in front of his shop and look curiously inside...

01.05.1831 Heinrich Heine
The gods leave for exile

...Mr. H. is tired. His family is worrying about his health for days now. He gets out of bed rather late. At the breakfast-table he talks about the sun which is a Prussian cockade. Black and ugly vultures are eating its liver...-...it's much better in the west, right in the heart of Europe. Everyone speaks French like the gentry, he says. Men are polite and women smile beautifully there...- ...shortly after he fell back in his chair and became melancholic...

...It is May. Spring just won't come. Mr. H. has to get out. He sets off, out of this fug...

01.06.1860 Robert Wilhelm Bunsen and Mr. Gustav Robert Kirchhoff gaze at the spectrals above Heidelberg

...Mr. B. and Mr. K. are standing at the window, gazing at the sky in Heidelberg. It is night and the sky is clear. A firework is announced and both are quite excited in expectance of colourful lights...

...later on they imitate the light-event in the laboratory and thus invent the spectral analysis...

01 .08.1989 Liese Meitner
The problem with the table

..“the table is a fake”, said Prof. H. to the museum’s associates and looked disparagingly at the furniture. “But I am able to provide one which is like the genuine one. Then we arrange some pieces of my collection on it and conjure the moment of the very first nuclear fission.” Everyone looked thrilled and affected over the old man’s shoulder. He sat down and jotted down his suggestion for the inscription on the information-board on a small piece of paper....

...When the issue with the table and the inscription suggested by a man came up on the world congress for history of science in the year 1989 the audience whispered. Mrs. S. provoked a scandal and in the end they had to change the inscription at the faked Hahn-Strassmann-table...

02.04.1968 Andreas Baader
Mr. B. answers the fire

...our Belgian friends finally got the clue how to involve their population in the funny on-goings in Vietnam. They set fire to a ware-house...the thrilling life of three hundred citizens came to an abrupt end and Brussels became Hanoi...if it burns somewhere in the near future...please do not be surprised...

...Mr. B. in a briefing...

02.07.1505 Martin Luthers
Thunderstrucked decision at wayside

...he was afraid and next to him was God. He was in mortal agony without having done penance for his sins. A lightening hit the ground right next to him and threw Mr. L. to the ground. He pledged to become a monk in a quick prayer and looked up. He felt called upon to become a monk through heaven and terror...

...L. said later that he became a monk through violence that day...

02.11.1525 Adam Ries
The oath to become a citizen of Annaberg

...Mr. R. took an oath to become a citizen of A. R. got somewhere in his life. He has published a mathematic book and founded a mathematic school because he is fond of numbers. Mr. R. enjoys to observe the little boys getting involved into the world of his numbers...

..."one needs two numbers for multiplying", Mr. R. tells the boys, "one which is being multiplied, one which multiplies"...

...Mr. R. is being put under oath to become a citizen of Annaberg on the 2nd...

03.05.1096 Speyer

The emperor's doubtful protection – a pogrom of Jews

...why traveling to the Holy Land if those who are responsible for J.'s death are living next door? P. – the hermit – asked. P. and his mob arrived in Speyer on the 3rd and started massacre right there...

03.05.1647 Hans Rogler

The battle for potatoes in Pilgramsreuth

...R. visits his relatives behind the border quite often. He likes especially the thick potatoes cooked by his fat sister in law. An officer from the Netherlands gave them to her. He came around many times and was sleek guy. Anyway she put two big and round things into the soil. "And behold", the sister in law said to R., "less than a hundred days later I had seven"...

...R. took two potatoes on the 3rd and put them into the soil he owns, just like that...

04.01.1761 Carsten Niebuhr

The gift from the Orient

...every participant of the expedition died from peculiar diseases, only Mr. N. was left in sound condition. He wrote down everything he saw, he smelled and he heard. He jotted down everything starting with stones to landscapes, meals and language in detail....

...it's good to know that Napoleon kept the "Travelogue of Arabia and the bordering countries" always in his pocket on his way to Egypt...

...departure on the 4th...

04.06.1768 Joachim Winckelmann

Elegies of Triest

...Mr. W. is on the move once again. When W. arrived at the harbor in T. he looks out for a ship to ferry over. In doing so he became acquainted with an interested man who was looking for a ship, too. W. reports whisperingly of his treasures...

...W. admires the beauty of masculinity. He longs for marblelike ... alike Greek ideals. He meets him again but this time the beloved accompanies him finally to the other bank...

04.06.1825 Ernst Bandel

Lonesome building owner of the memorial of Hermann

...Mr. B. is twenty-five, healthy and he is full of beans. His hero is Herman, the Etruscan. He has drawn him a thousand times. He is familiar with every line of his hero's body. The warrior shall be pedestalled. Forged of copper, a colossus made for eternity. When his work is done B. will be very close to Hermann...

...4.6.1826...Dear K. As you may know I want to become an artist. Only artists may look down in disdain on the shabbiness which always crosses the humankind's luck. Nothing will make me change my mind about that, no civil look will be able to attract me, I won't lead a slave's life...

04.10.1582 10 days of phantom-time

...Mr. G. is in the tower of winds on time with the beginning of spring. He observes the ground with attention and looks consistently to the small opening in the wall. As expected a beam of divine light squeezes through the narrow slit and describes an oval on the ground. "Nearly done", Mr. G. murmured, takes out his ruler and jots down the missing inches. Late at night he calculates everything one more time and decides to overleap ten days so that the order may be restored in the chaos of time...

...when Mr. K. goes to bed the evening of the 4th and wakes up in the morning of the 15th; Mr. K. is a bit surprised but let God do his work...

04.12.1900 Max Planck

Starting shot for the atomic age

...Mr. P. has a thesis which he would like to present to an illustrious audience. The atmosphere in the hall is tense and everyone waits for the lightning to break the tension. Mr. P. copes with his task and deconstructs energy into quanta. Consequently that means the end to the continuum of nature, everyone says later...

...Mr. P. gives a speech to the Association of Physicians in Berlin on the 14th. The issue is his "quantum theory" ...-...a genius idea...

05.05.1972 Friedrich Schiller
Europe sings about the great cup in harmony

...who succeeded in being a friend's friend, in gaining a dainty woman's love, brings in his jubilation ! Yes – The ones with a soul included. And who never gained anything of it shall quietly disappear from the league...

...Resolution of the Council of Europe on the 5th regarding the anthem of Europe, text: Mr. S.....

06.11.1895 Wilhelm Roentgen
X rays

...Mrs. R. is not sure if it is save to lay down the hand on the apparatus like her husband had told her. She trusts him and is rewarded with a picture of her inner world. She only forgot to take of her ring. Suddenly it looks plump, she thinks...

06.12.1827 Alexander von Humboldt
The cosmos for the people

...Der Du vom fernsten Nebelflecke
Zu uns'rer Sonne Himmelsdecke
Das Weltall geistig uns erklart,
Wie in dem Deuten der Atome
Auf deiner Suada maecht'gem Strome
Den hohen Meister und bewaehrt; -
Der Du die Wichtigkeit der Thiere,
Und dass kein Wesen sich verliere,
Voll Geist und Scharfsinn uns gelehrt;
Wie Du den Schoepfer dieser Raeume
Und aller Welten, Wesen, Baeume,
Durch Deinen Vortrag tief verehrt; -
Der Du durch Herschels Teleskopen
Den mag'schen Himmel Deiner Tropen
Gleich aller Elemente Zank
Uns aufgeschlossen, - doch Versoehnen
Im Weltall zeigtest voll des Schoenen:
Nimm, edler Lehrer, unsern Dank...

Ein Schuelergesang

07.06.1525 Albrecht Durer
Face of dreams

...dreams are where God uses to live in, Mr. M. said. D. wakes up in sweat and looks into the flood in his soul's abyss. A landscape, no face emerges. Pillars made of water are running down towards earth. And he feels M.'s heart...

...D. discovers his very own inside that particular night. He dreams the truth and knows that he has to follow the truth. But the question is answered. Muentzner's head is tucked on the top of a stake. The skull shall horrify M. regarding his way of thinking. It is indeed horrifying...D. calls himself a coward that night...

07.08.1495 Ewiger Landfriede
Managing peace and justice by financial means of the penny

...the last of its kind. One gave the penny long shrift. In W., in the Reichstag everyone used to talk about the penny, later disregarded and now just thrown away, no place in the pockets. It is so small and at the same time so faithful. It is so easy to lose without shedding tears. I found it on the rails very often, mostly squelched by technique. It is over...

...the law of vendetta was over. Acceptations were confirmed by documents and the Superior Court of Justice provided law and order. Everything was (or was not) funded with the penny...

08.06.1865 The impeded duell
Otto von Bismarck vs. Rudolph Virchow and the delayed satisfaction

...Mr. V. holds a speech in the Reichstag and attacks Mr. B. with harsh words. Mr. B. is angry because he is being dishonored in public. With a quivering mustache he cries for satisfaction. B's friends try to calm him down, B. backs down. Years later when the incidence was nearly forgotten a battleship with the same name like B. wins the impeded duell to B.'s favor...

08.11.1685 Hugenotten
Great elector invented the Greencard

...Industriousness, activity and austerity – really capable, these Hugos, thought the sovereign. And so he took advantage of the situation and ordered 20,000 of the at once. They did their best so that the country did flourish and the people did walk on air...

...the development-assistance-edict is being signed...

08.11.1939 Georg Elser
Mr. E.'s private war

...Mr. E. is known as a silent but sociable human being. He is making music since school, is member of a traditional customs club and later of the zither-club in Koenigsbronn. He is playing the double-bass on dancing evenings and is liked by women. Also, he loves to hike together with friends. The only thing bothering him is Mr. H. Mr. H. is planning war and, in Mr. E's opinion, is disturbing the harmony of the family...

...the customers official observes a creeping man at 08:40 p.m. who comes up to the border of Suisse. Later on he described it like that: "I came to the conclusion that I had to give him a signal and I shouted "Hey, where are you going?" "...

09.03.1497 Nikolaus Kopernikus
The migration of spring and fall

...Night after night Mr. K. stands under the firmament of B. and looks up to the white speckled black hole. He knows that a system for space exists and the one thing has to do is to study how to read it. "The moon changed its position once again", he says quietly to himself, "different to what P. has described"...

...a first note of his surveillance regarding the star Aldebaran in Taurus stirs the attention in the world of science...

09.04.1917 Lenin
The open sealed waggon

...Mr. is worried about the lust for singing of his buddies who are traveling with him. Some of them were not able to abstain from singing the Marsellaise, Carmagnole and some other French songs although two officers were with them. P. demands to stop the singing...

...Mr. L. leaves Zuerich on the 9th in a sealed waggon together with his companions. Through the diplomatic maneuver the Germans hope for chaos in Russia as big as possible. The revolutionaries hope for freedom in the world...

09.05.1894 Deutschbuendlers
The genuine German Homer

...Mr. S. is making an effort to transform Homer's name into German since three decades. Due to the instruction to "germanize" the world from its beginning S. takes the chance to jump into Germania, always knowing Mr. H. being in the background. He starts with the ancient Someros, switches to the Middle High German and Sagemare and to the Bavarian-Austrian dialect. At last he explores, however, So'ma who was an narrator of fairy tales. Mr. S. reaches his target and he carefully locates Mr. H. in Valhalla...

...Mr. Friedrich Lang founds the German Alliance (Deutschbund) on the 5th in Berlin. To Arianize the cradle of the world means a holy liability to him and his companions...

09.11.1759 Caspar Wolff

An "Epigenesist" is being harassed to Petersburg

...It does not make a sense to talk about coming into being ! No part of the animal's body comes into being stepwise but every part is created at the very same time...

Albrecht von Haller, Praeformist

...the "Theoria generationis" is being ignored for half a century and is being battled against with means of words. Mr. W. thinks ahead and deciphers the embryo's development. The Tsar is persuaded by the theory of Every-life-out-of-an-egg and calls Mr. W. to come to Petersburg...

10.10.1873 Robert Koch

Tuberkelcow

...Mr. K. is in the country. He feels fine because of the fresh air. Mr. K. is a collector and very vivid. Just today his favorite peasant summoned him to come to his pasture. There he wants offer him another peculiar formed cow for the collection. K. knows that the something he is looking for is really teeny-weeny. And what he likes to collect is hiding...

11.02.1889 Japan on Prussia's shoulders

...Meeting of locations with transcendental wisdom in connection with a strong breath of Prussian bureaucracy...

...Japan adopts the constitution due to the Prussian example on the 11th. – In commemoration to Mr. H. and Mr. K. - ...

11.11.1619 Rene Descartes

The light of a wonderful insight

...Mr. D. is being pushed by a great storm. He painfully collides with a gate. He recognizes the walls of La Fleche where he took lectures in his youth and prepares to pray. He meets an acquaintance and wants to turn back right away but is hindered by the storm. His name is being called and a request is being asked for...If he likes to go to Mr. N., D. shall hand over a melon. So the dreamer is battling against the storm in a landscape made of aspic...

...odd. His soul is resting in jelly whereas the storm is threatening him...

12.06.1411 Pest

Mr. H. danced naked in a community

...Mr. H. is an Adamit. That means that Mr. H. prefers to dance like Adam created him, that is nakedly. Mr. H. is the leader of a naked-dance-group. That means that Mr. H. dances naked in a community. H. is bewitched, says the law court. In these times everybody acts a bit eccentric...

...Mr. Willem von Hildernissen is being indicted in terms of heresy during a particular hard attack of the plague. Nevertheless the plague keeps on dancing...

12.10.1956 Werner Forßmann

To the heart

...unusual things are getting around very quickly in a hospital. Half asleep and with messy hair Mr. R. rushed in to prevent me from doing didoes. He was so harsh that he tried to pull me from the lectern. I had to calm him down by kicking him several time against his shinbone...

from:

Werner Forßmann

„Selbstversuch“ Erinnerung eines Chirurgen“

Droste Verlag 1972

...In the evening a lady from B. with a foreign accent phoned Mr. F. at home and whispered to Mrs. F. something about a Nobel Prize...

13.07.1870 Emser Depesche

Who makes reality ?

...a genius is not able to create out of Nothingness but he invents a new reality which was never seen before and which has not come into existence yet. The existing reality is always in a state of throe.

...Bismarck manipulated the world trough his piercing glance. He adopted the monarch's initiative and defeated France...

13.08.1819 Friedrich Ludwig Jahn
Bodies made of steel for the fight against France

...Mr. J. is arrested. Mr. J. has recruited too many gymnasts and wrecked them all, the policemen say. Mr. J. keeps in shape even though the room is narrow. That helps to keep his mind awake. He knows that his help will be wanted again one day. Then he will direct again...

13.08.1961 Mauer
Sneak attack by means of building a wall

..."The construction workers of our capitol are mainly being kept busy by domestic buildings", Mr. U. replies to Mr. D.'s query, "and their manpower is fully employed. Nobody intends to build a wall !"...

14.03.1929 Konrad Wachsmann
Mr. W. and the fastest wood-houses of the world

...Mr. E.'s birthday was celebrated silently. The family left the city and should not be disturbed by anyone including Mr. W. Mr. W. was modelizing his gift for days. It was a house made of wood. And now the famous scientist was out of reach...

...Mrs. E. preferred a house of stone because she did not trust a material like wood...

...one of Einstein's birthday gifts was a house at a lake, on paper, given by the city of Berlin. Every newspaper reported about it. Mr. W., the architect of fast building, read about the generosity, too. One could see his disappointment because he had been the one intending to give a gift to E. He would not abandon the attempt that easily...

14.04.0972 Adelheid Theophanu
The entering of the Ottone in Cologne

...she ought to be colorfully dressed, one says, surrounded by a thousand exotics, one says. Well, it is time. The gate of K. opens and the young empress enters the city. A murmur runs through the crowd. Passing the gazing crowd the long tross marches on in bright colors. The golden cavalries of the guard shout unknown words. Helou or ellau, probably Halau, nothing more to be caught...

...The emporer Otto II married a young woman, T., originally from Byzantium, on the 14th...

14.08.1881 Friedrich Nietzsche
Hike beyond time and mankind

...Here you are, master, in times of greatest distress you came back finally.
Please feel welcome Zarathustra !
You will advise us what to do, you will lead us.
You will save us from the greatest of endagerments...

...Mr. N. meets the new master of mankind 6,000feet beyond time and mankind." I walked trough the forest at the lake of Silvaplana that day; I rested at a high-piled block which resembled to a pyramide. Then that thought popped into my mind...a sudden and deep change of my taste...

14.10.1806 Ernst Chladni
The father of the acoustics listens to the thunder of a cannon 150 kilometers away

...Mr. C. wonders...today the sky above W. is clear. No signs for a change of weather are recognizable. Anyway, there is indeed a trembling thunder. C. "listens" southwards and south-west and tries to concentrate on the rhythm of the rumbling tone. "The thunder of a cannon" he whispers to himself...

...the following day C. hears about the French victory the day before next to Jena. The cannons where heard in Wittenberg's apartment approximately150 kilometers away. Mr. C. jots down some notes...

14.11.1940 ENIGMA
Alan Turing solved the riddle of war

...Mr. T. decipherd finally the Enigma-code. It determined the sequel of war. Great Britain was able to listen to what German warriors' were talking about. So they knew about the planned bombing of Coventry but nevertheless they had to be silent...

15.05.1514 Herr von Brandenburg
The pope's indulgence deal

...In Rome the pope has great plans. He wants to build a house. A house for P. There the saint ought to stand erectly. But this is going to be expensive. Faith is only a little helper here, the pope knows that well enough. So he borrows money from a friend in Mainz. His friend is obliging and has only one small wish...

...Mr. B. receives the right to deal with indulgences for eight years in the German departments...

15.05.1625 Adam Graf von Herberstorff
The Frankenburger game of dice

...Mr. F. raised the dice-box, shook it carefully and let go of the dices...-
..."that's that then", Mr. F. said disappointedly about his bad luck. "Therefor punishment", Mr. H. said and ordered to hang Mr. F. at a lime-tree...

..."one has the duty to take drastic measurements", Mr. H. said, "not in the name of justice but punishment. I do not want to decide who of the 6,000 shall be hanged at the tower or tree", H. told his soldiers, "so they shall throw dices for their lives. They have to know who is in power here"...

...36 were picked out of 6,000 and had to throw dices for their lives on the 15th at the Haushamer field near Frankenburg. The community had been too party regarding the sovereign...

15.10.1454 Johannes Gutenberg
Mr. Piccolomini discovers Mr. G.'s booth with bibles in F.

...I have met a remarkable man who presents bibles written with clear and correct fonts...

16.03.1944 Joseph Beuys
Heldenfriedhof

...while they were searching under the steel plates which was laying over me...lying down. And that they did find me and were standing around me and then I said to them: woda, which means water – and then I fainted away,,,

16.06.1953 Fritz Selbmann
"Table conversation" with the people

...there is now no way for a world revolution paid from my account, says the brick-layer from block 40. "Take a look at yourself and get your guts together to make this apparatus work again, you fat cats" someone in the crowd shouts.
"Norms are fine if the gut is filled and not empty" the whole social collective shouts at Mr. S. He stands there forgotten by the leadership, on a table, in the middle of a whimsy mass...

...The dictator of the proletariat ought to give account to the mass on the 16th.
The thing with norm and the linked rule ought to be clarified on that occasion...

16.09.1941 Werner Heisenberg or Niels Bohr
Who invented the A-bomb ?

...the pupil asked his teacher about the target of their work very early. They had a joker for winning the war shortly. The research advances quite well and if the battle goes on for a longer while then the war ought to come to an end by means of the A-bomb. And probably F. would be appreciative of scientific issues in D. But these thoughts caused the pupil's sickness. The pupil asked his teacher to arrange an appointment with B. in K., B. is wise and able to give answers to the pupil's discomfort...

...both scientists are very emotional at this meeting. H. has many plans which B. is not able to follow. H. sees B.'s disbelief. And B. does not really know what H. wants to tell him...

...B. writes H. a letter because their meeting keeps him busy. He has problems to find formulations for his doubts and finally he is not able to make a decision for sending the letter...

17.03.1905 Mileva Einstein
The bridge to discovery of the theory of relativity

...Mrs. E. is clever, cultured and creative. She resolves her husband's mathematical problems, writes poems and paints modern. Time is a relative idea for her. Her husband is being praised later on for an idea which is not new to her but she remains silent. She knows well that the two of them are a unity...

...How happy and proud will I be when we both have finalized our work on the theory of relativity successfully...-...she writes to her husband Albert on the 17th...

18.01.1934 Schaefer's Tibet
Travel to the origins of Germania

...Tibet has an extraordinary important position regarding the development of many creatures in terms of their tribe history. It is worth a life to find a solution through an analytic examination...

"I am planning a huge expedition to Tibet for the whole academy of Natural Sciences Philadelphia.
Are you coming with us?"

Telegram, 18.01.1934 by Brooke Dolan

Quoted from: Ernst Schaefer „Unbekanntes Tibet“, Paul Parey Berlin, 1933

18.03.1848 Adolph von Menzel
Mr. M. soul-paintings

...Mr. M. is small but at the same time he is not the type one overlook. Mr. M. stands on a ladder and looks over the crowd. He quickly draws coffins and the march of mourners. Back at home, M. feels that what he draws is not polite enough. The picture will neither hang near the king nor the aristocracy will it praise it. He will paint it just for himself and his soul, for himself and the narrow room...

...Vor dem Berliner Schlosse
Ertoent ein Trauerlied:
Da liegen viel hundert Tote,
Sie liegen in Reih und Glied.
Und Leich´ um Leiche tragen
Die Buerger stumm heran,
Als wollten sie sagen: Koenig!
Da sieh, was du getan!...

Quoted from: Ludwig Pfau, „Zum 18. Maerz 1848“

18.06.1821 Carl Maria von Weber
Die satanische, immer treffende Freikugel

...Hope is in town. The king came back from exile and lets hearts beat faster. There are enough occasions to perform Mr. W.'s operas. He illustrated the origins of German history. There are images from the depth of forests, the heathenly energy, foggy, stormy, flavored with love, death and devil. A storm at the end and sweet voices which do bind maidens' wreaths. Mr. W. will be praised by everybody, he keeps pace with the times, one says...

...W. is on stage and exercises to take a bow in front of an imagenary audition. The backstage is still under construction. One smells mortar and lime. He is excited. Excited as if he is going to give birth soon...

18.06.1896 Halberstadter Dosenwurst
40,000 sausages for the Kyffhaeuser

...One expects masses to come for the inauguration of the Kyffhaeuser. Big times are calling for giants. Giants who want to eat large quantities...one says to H., a meat manufacturer...and nobody did dare thinking that he would deliver 40,000 sausages in cans...

18.07.1126 Norbert von Xanten

Barefoot and blessed by thunderbolt X. marches into M.

...Barefoot and wrapped in a simple garment X. marched into the city of M. years ago. Nowadays he is a bishop, dressed with the most elegant clothes and praising God's word. He gets angry easily when the mob dares to distrust his words...

...Entry in M. on the 18th...

18.07.1750 Johann Sebastian Bach

Der erblindete Herr B. berechnet den goldenen Schnitt der Fuge und wird für einen kurzen Moment wieder Sehend

...Mr. B. suffers exceedingly. After a stroke he is hardly able to see. He is not yet surrounded by silence. He is able to recognize the hum in the air. His will is strong enough to give sound a shape...

...on the 18th Mr. B.'s loss of sight was gone shortly before his death. He grasps his pen and starts to write in the light...

19.06.1814 Anton Friedrich Justus Thibau versus Friedrich Karl von Savigny
Legal code from the people's spirit

...have a look at the citizens' happiness. In that framework a simple legal code would be worth to be called heaven on earth in Germany. The simple unity would be already invaluable. Although Germany has to be divided politically then the Germans are very much interested in being linked together eternally in fraternity as well as in being never again used against one another through a foreign power...

...Mr. T. is animated by his idea to bind the German soul through a work including every legal code: French, Prussian, Saxon, Austrian, Danish, common Roman, Juetisch Law, Sachsenspiegel and many more...

...Mr. T. starts to proclaim looking for publicity. It will succeed because it is good, Mr. T. thinks. Far away in Berlin Mr. S. does not agree with him...

19.10.1988 Foto Anonymus

Man 33 is being observed

...potential emigrants, picture-disposition no. 33, at about 12:07 p.m. (report of 19.10.1988)...

20.05.1634 Hans Jakob Grimmelshausen
Brandschatzung einer Geburtsstadt

...Da es taget, fuettert ich mich wieder mit Weizen, begab mich zum naechsten auf Gelnhausen, und fand daselbst die Tor offen, welche zum Teil verbrennt, und jedoch noch halber mit Mist verschanzt waren: Ich ging hinein, konnte aber keines lebendigen Menschen gewahr werden, hingegen lagen die Gassen hin und her mit Toten ueberstreut, deren etliche ganz, etliche aber bis aufs Hemd ausgezogen waren. Dieser jaemmerliche Anblick war mir ein erschreckliches Spektakul, maßen sich jedermann selbst wohl einbilden kann, meine Einfalt konnte nicht ersinnen, was für ein Unglueck den Ort in einen solchen Stand gesetzt haben muesste...

21.05.1945 Bergen-Belsen
Britische Truppen Feuerbestatten in einem feierlichen Akt die letzte Baracke

...spring-time in concentration camp.
Most of the imprisoned are dying from typhoid.
14,000 in a few days.
First buds coming out.
Neither there is water nor bread.
One is able to see the first leaves on the branches.
The camp is liberated but still the dying goes on.
The first barracks are burning, the fire sings the soft green...

...the last barrack contaminated with typhoid is being burned in a ceremony on the 21st of May...

21.10.1616 Johannes Kepler
Das Hexenopfer

...Mr. K. wrote a moon-novel which was so vivid and filled with details that no one knew if it is the truth or fiction. He stood for science in the name of Duracotus. The evil, the ignorance was the mother of science named Fiolxhilde. A wonderful game with images but everybody took it for real, mother flies often and meets witches on the moon...

...Mr. K.'s mother, Katharina, was suited for being a witch. She was acquitted but she told her son not be mentioned again in one of his book...

22.03.1982 Gottfried Wilhelm Leibniz
Mr. L., the last universal scholar, is being disassembled by the company L.

...Mr. L. is disassembling Mr. L.'s bust. The youth has been rioting in the temple-ground for too many times. The memorial's quintessence vanished and what was left is a stage for lonely musicians who appreciate the sound evolved through the rounded construction of the ceiling....

...Mr. Peter Leichsenring of the P. Leichsenring GmbH disassembles Mr. L.'s bust. It is besmeared with the word HATE. He keeps it in his deposit...

22.06.1793 Wilhelm Heinrich Wackenroder
Mr. W.'s Nuremberger entry and Duerer's resurrection

...But now my mourning spirit walks through the consecrated place near Nuremberg; on the field made by God where Albrecht Duerer rests in peace who used to be praised in Germany and Europe. He rests among so many others. It is a lovely garden, this field made by God, with a lot of sunflowers. Here are Albrecht Duerer's forgotten bones. He is the reason for me that I like to be a German...

22.10.1884 Helene Druscowicz
Soul-asylum letter about manhood

...Mrs. D. is enthusiastic about N. Together they do philosophize on long walks. In Mr. N.'s opinion D. is a noble and honest creature who does not harm his philosophy. Years later it turns out to be the other way round. N.'s masculine behaviour gets unbearable and Mrs. D. starts to decorate her womanliness with glamour...

...In addition to this you have the males' beastly lust for sports, amusements and games of all kinds. According to this the males' construction is subject to philosophical criticism and the silliest animal could be his moral leader...

22.10.1931 Adolf Butenandt
Isolation des weiblichen Sexualhormons Isolating the

...Mr. B. measures the crown of the capon. It increased about 20 percent since he gave the injection to the young caponized rooster. Wonderful to see that the now to uselessness abused crown for giving signals is swollen. B. pumps more testosterone into the body of the rooster. And the crown continues to swell...

...Mr. B. exhales from 15,000 litres of mens' urine androsterone. On the 22nd he lets the world know...

23.06.1990 Mathias Baader Holst
Flucht aus der Zeit am Vorabend einer
Währungsunion

...And that's how fairy tales end: Nobody laughs. Nobody flee.
Every citizen of the world stays pleasingly to God in affirmation to Nothingness.
Later on in memory, probably not until fifty seven-hundred years, mankind is reduced to a maddening gnat's buzzing...

Epilogue by Peter Wawerzinek, July 1990

...zwischen bunt und bestialisch

du eine frau eine dieser maenner sieg heil! Ich begruesse sie am tresen sieg heil! Ich halte sie fuer ein denkendes wesen sieg heil! Ich habe ihre verse gelesen

sieg heil! Dein roter mund

wir zerstoeren uns/unsre jugend feiernd halten wir uns wach oeffnen die augen:werden gezaehlt wir schweigen viel zu lang mit 25 noch am leben zu sein ist eine schande wir schweigen viel zu spaet mit 30 noch ein herz zu haben ist ein verbrechen...

Taken from: BAADER Holst „koitusbonzen ZWISCHEN BUNT
UND BESTIALISCH“, Maas Verlag Berlin 1992

24.05.1780 Georg Lichtenberg
First garden-house with a lightning-rod

...“why does the divine wrath burst above steeples ?”, Mr. B. asks Mr. L., the scholar. “Before and during a storm we are ringing the bell to mitigate God but He takes us to tasks like everyone else. For all that 103 persons have died”...

...Mr. L. fixes a “heretical rod” on his garden-house and catches God's wrath...

24.05.1944 Friedl Dicker-Brandeis
Combining monograms to restore childrens' identity

...many of the 5,000 children's drawings from Theresienstadt show striking monograms. Names are repeated in diverse graphical combinations. They are signed in a language made of flowers, painted as bridges to the lost childhood...

...Erika Taussig signed her work with SINAI on the 24th. She was gased on October, 16th 1944. Twelf days before her tenth anniversary...

24.12.1829 Heinrich Schliemann
Father, Troja is alive !

...It is Christmas eve, the boy is excited about the view of Troja in his world-history book he received..."Dad", he calls, "you were wrong ! Jerrer must have seen Troja otherwise a copy would not have been possible"...-..."Son", the father replies, "that is a fairy tale, Jerrer thought that out"...

25.05.1865 Moritz Schreber
The total system of punishment in the garden of lust

...Kommt, kommt und laßt uns unsern Kindern leben !
So haben Schreber, Hauschild uns Gelehrt;
Durch Jugendspiel des Volkes Kraft zu heben,
Das war ihr Wunsch, - er ward von uns erhoert...

Kleiner Jubilaeumsreim

26.04.1937 Guernica

...I behaved sort of loutish with Guernica...-...Mr. R. bombs an example...

...the world's camera-eyes are lurking. It is spring 2003. Journalists and photographers are waiting for Mr. P. or someone else who is able to say something about war and peace in Irak in the lobby of the Uno. Behind the microphones in the background a copy of Picasso's Guernica hangs silently in mellow Uno-blue and waits for a chance to remind...

26.05.1828 Kaspar Hauser's return

...Mr. H. does not really exist in his time. He is the phenomenon of the untouchable, the innocent. The society faces him dully and helplessly and is not able to grasp him. They claim him as a "pledge" and see him as a tool for their principles. It is the starting point of the era in which the secrets of death are being repressed, death is being extinguished through simulation. Burned into the skin we carry Hauser's wounds in us...

...Later, much later, thousands Hausers come back to Nurenberg...

26.07.1824 San Leopoldo
The German cultural roller disembarks

...Your country is wealthy – and endlessly grateful. But it needs people who act for it wants to be courted in a hard battle like a prudish beauty.
In the very moment of surrender you know what you have...

Taken from: Ernst H. Rothe „Die Kulturwalze“ Brazilian experiences, August Scherl Verlag, 1928

...Hunsruecker citizens disembark at the bank of the Glockenfluss, nowadays called San Leopoldo. Instantaneous after the German arrival they started to divide the land with force of arms and without regardless of the natives. Dead straight lines marked the alleys in the occupied land. To the left and to right of the alleys as well as on the rest of the land one was allowed to go plundering and that included everything what or who lived there.

26.08.1824 Heinrich Marx former Mr. Hirsch Mordechei
Family change of religion

...Mr. Mordechei is diligent. His boss as and his customers are absolutely satisfied with his correct work. Only his origin seems to be an obstacle on the roadmap of his job. M. is not really religious like the name supposes him to be. And clarify some things he abbreviates his and his childrens' name – into Marx...

...Karl, Mr. M.'s son, is being baptized on the 26th. An ideal Christian...

26.08.1856 Neandertal
Alessandro and Luigi nearly anticipate the first European's rebirth

...he excavated it out of the hard loamy soil with a battock without breaking it. Mr. A. and Mr. L. did not pay any attention to the bones and threw them into the valley together with the loamy soil...

27.03.1188 Barbarossa
Oath on crusade III.

...when our emporer F. I., also called the read beart, drowned while swimming we were demoralized. We returned home. God gave us to understand that our crusade was not blesses by him...

...Nowadays the emporer swims again. Hopefully the "Barbarossa" is not doomed, too...

27.06.1755 Jakob Hermann Oberreit
Mr. O. finds the Nibelungenlied in the slip-box of Hohenems

...es ist eine Sprache von Stein und die Verse sind gleichsam gereimte Quadern. Hie und da, aus den Spalten, quellen rote Blumen hervor, wie Blutropfen, oder zieht sich der lange Efeu herunter, wie grüne Tränen...

Heinrich Heine

27.11.1095 Crusade
In the name of God

..."Deus lo volt", eager listener shouted again and again so the pope could hear them. Mr. U. the II. rampaged in agitation. And the people rampaged, too.
The top christian's bloodthirsty words aroused an up-roar. Save J. from the evil – liberate Jerusalem – in the name of God...

28.04.1857 Wagnerwesendonck - Tristanisolde
A yearning chord

...Music is a woman, Mr. W. bells lustful...

...Soll ich schlurfen, untertauchen ?
Suess in Dueften mich verhauchen ?
In dem wogenden Schwall,
In dem toenenden Schall,
in des Welt-Atems wehendem All ertrinken, versinken – unbewusst – hoechste Lust !...

Isolde singt im Liebestod

...On the 28th Mr. W. moves into his asylum and is sucked by Miss W. ...

29.03.1796 Carl Friedrich Gauß
Mr. G. draws a 17-angle with a pair of compasses and a ruler

...before young Mr. G. gets out of bed he discovers the possibility regarding the construction of a regular 17-angle with a pair of compasses and a ruler if p $= 2 + 1$. It works so easily that the fervent wish to study the magic of numbers arises ...

...Much later and many years after G.'s death his grandson discovers a small book. The very first entry starts with the following words...before I got out of bed...

29.08.1940 Exile

Walter Benjamin and Siegfried Kracauer, meeting at the border

...It is noon. On that day the people in exile deal with only one subject in the harbor of Marseille. Getting out, far away. Mr. B. and Mr. K. are having a coffee together and both have the same plans. "What will happen to us", Mr. B. asks K. "We all will have to commit suicide here" he means...

...Mr. B. commits suicide and Mr. K. is lucky. He caught the last chance to go into exile...

29.10.1772 Johann Wolfgang Goethe

Mr. J. commits suicide and Mr. G. feels stimulated

...Ausgelitten hast du – ausgerungen,
Armer Juengling, deinen Todesstreit;
Abgeblutet die Beleidigungen
Und gebüßt für deine Zärtlichkeit !...

L. bei Ws'. Grab

...Carl Ernst von Reitzenstein writes poetry into the Werther – fever into an elegy which was sung in Wetzlar in a nocturnal ceremony held at Jerusalem's alleged grave...

...Karl Wilhelm Jerusalem loved Miss H. unreturned. At around 1 a.m. he aims with his weapon above his right eye on the forehead...-he died at approximately 12 p.m. He was buried at the usual grave-yard at about 22:45 p.m. – no priest did come along with him...

30.01.1945 Wilhelm Gustloff

Shelling and wreck of a refugee ship

...regarding the martial comparison of suffering the numbers have to be silent. Whether 6,000 deaths on one side or 10,000 on the other still one is not able to get an idea of the suffering. Nevertheless story of the Wilhelm Gustloff and its wreck stands for one incident in World War II. laying beyond every statistics...

30.03.1769 Immanuel Kant

The beautiful S. brings Mr. K. back in his own world

...K. has left nothing undone to confess his love to the beautiful S. If not her than none. When the beautiful S. married his best friend G. a world breaks down for K. Henceforth K. suffers from obstipation and he tries to sum up the symptoms of his illness scientifically. He knows that the only thing to save his life is a system in spiritual things...

...on this day Mr. K.'s neuroses begin. From today on he turns away from everything else and relies only on his power of mind...

30.05.1968 Karl Marx
Political marking through renaming

...Look above to the left on the picture. There Mr. D. tries to remove the renaming. The man on the right just looks concerned...

...but there is a high, white coated garden-wall. It invites to write down a slogan. We scribble down something so that everything is clear: Do destroy what destroys you. Do destroy what destroy you, Ullrich repeats slowly, with growing anger he emphasizes it more and more...Exactly, he said, that's that. SO LET'S GO...

taken from: Uwe Timm: „Heißer Sommer“ Kiepenheuer & Witsch 1985

...May, 30th 1968, under the robes from Goethe to Marx

30.06.1940 Warnemünde
Wave of memory

...Ms K. says goodbye to the sea. She gazes out to the water-girdled horizon. Just now an especially beautiful wave is preparing to break. She raises her camera and pulls the trip. „Just for the memory“, she whispers contemplatively to herself...